

WI report

At last weeks Grindleton WI meeting, one of their members, Lesley Wood was the Speaker. She gave an interesting and fascinating insight into the History of Chocolate from its Mayan origins to the present day. All members felt they had learnt lots of new facts. At the end members sampled three different chocolates including raw chocolate that Lesley had made herself.

Only three seats remain on the coach to Leeds on Wed April 11th to visit the Marks and Spencer Archive?

There are just a few tickets still available for the Annual Bingo night on Wed March 14th. Tickets cost £10 and inc a two course supper and a book of Bingo cards. Please phone Catherine on 441501.